Silly-spooky games for the walk, the drive and the back seat, with Nova & Cosmo

Print it • Grab a pencil • Play before the knocking begins thebrainbus.fm

WELCOME ABOARD

Happy Halloween, adventurer!

This little pack turns the countdown to trick-or-treat into a game. There's bingo for the walk or the drive, puzzles for the back seat and a costume page for the creative one. It's silly-spooky: friendly bats, smiling pumpkins and not one real fright. No screens, no batteries, no mess.

Ahoy, Nova here! I'm a pirate this year. See how many things you can spot on the way.

And I'm Cosmo, the ghost-robot! I packed a fortune teller for you. Beep boop! My circuits are TINGLING!

1

Print it

Colour or black-&-white, both work great.

2

Grab a pencil

Plus scissors for the fortune teller. A grown-up does the cutting.

3

Play as you go

Spot, solve and fold your way to the treats.

Grown-up tip: Slip the pages into a plastic sleeve and use a dry-erase marker, and the pack works again every Halloween. Bingo is a passenger game: if you're driving, eyes on the road and let the kids call out what they see. If you're walking, stay together and keep to footpaths and safe crossings.

FOLD, FLIP, FIND OUT

Cosmo's Fold-up Fortune Teller

Fold your own fortune teller, then ask a friend to pick a picture and a number. Every fortune is kind, funny and a little bit silly!

Make it (a grown-up cuts out the square first)

1. Cut out the big square along the dashed line.
2. Picture side down! Fold each of the four corners into the middle. Press the creases hard.
3. Flip it over. Fold the four corners into the middle again.
4. Fold it in half one way, then the other way (numbers inside). Open it back up.
5. Turn it so the coloured squares face up. Slide your thumbs and first fingers into the four little pockets, then pinch your fingers together to make it pop.

····· dotted = fold – – – dashed = cut

How it looks, popped open

Play it

1. Your friend picks a picture: PUMPKIN, BAT, GHOST or CAT. Open and close the fortune teller once for each letter as you spell it out.
2. Open it up. Your friend picks a number from the inside. Open and close it that many times.
3. Pick one more number. Lift the flap and read the fortune out loud!

The eight fortunes

1. Your costume will make three people smile today.
2. A super-yummy surprise is hiding in your treat bucket.
3. You will share a giggle with a friend before bedtime.
4. Cosmo predicts: FACT CONFIRMED, you are awesome!
5. Someone is about to say, "I LOVE your costume!"
6. Today is a perfect day for an adventure.
7. Your next big idea will be brilliant (and a bit silly).
8. A big hug is on its way to you.

Grown-up: under each numbered flap, write the matching fortune (shorten it if the flap is small). Blank ones are for the kids' own!

Nova says: Make a few and swap them with your friends, then write your own fortunes on a blank one.

EYES SHARP

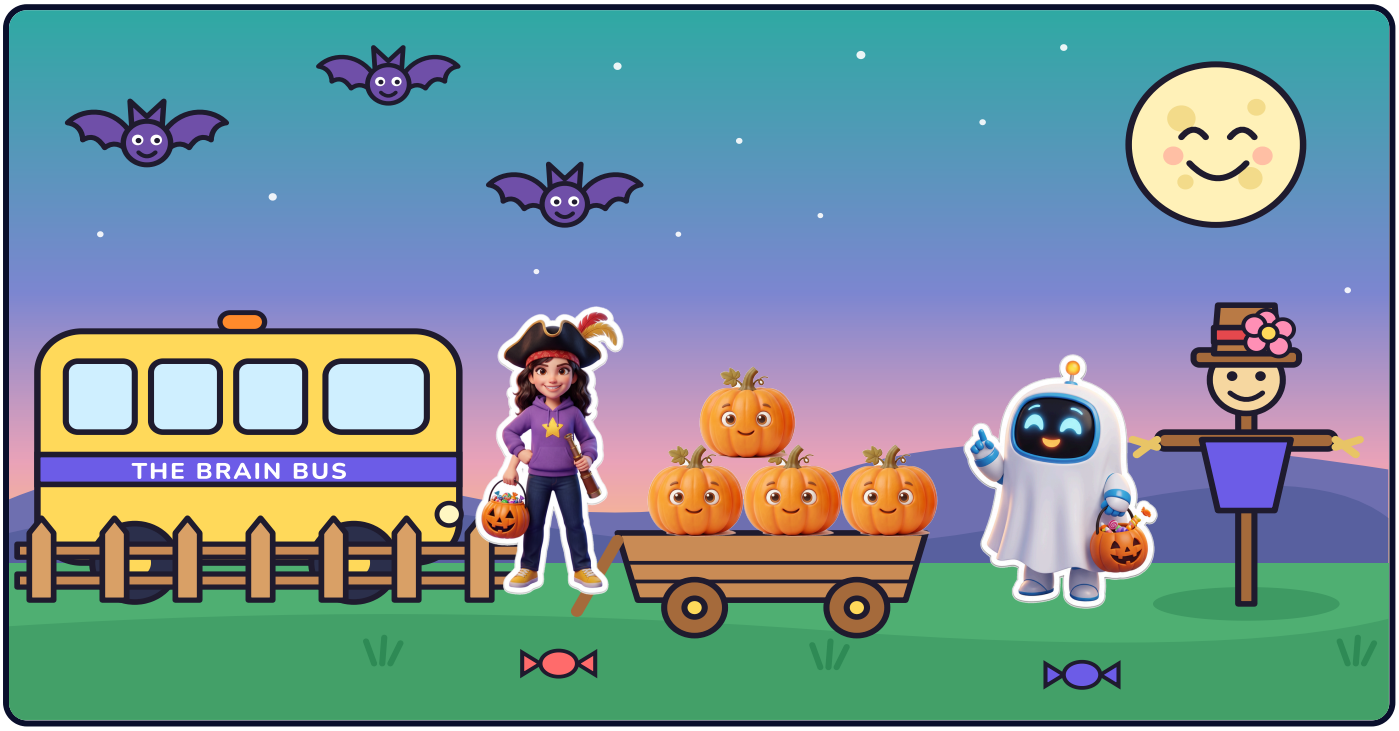

Spot the Difference

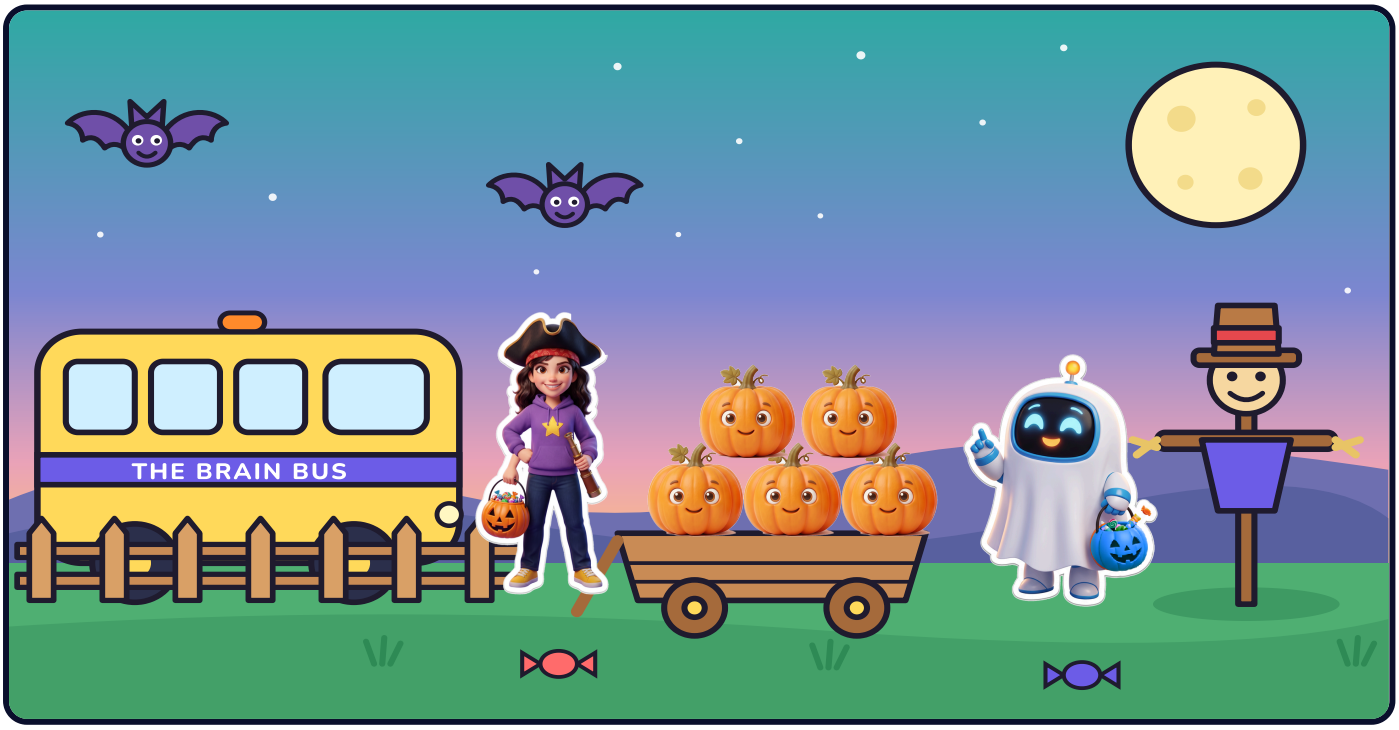

The two pictures look the same, but they are not! Find all 6 differences in picture B and circle them.

Cosmo says: Beep boop! My robot eyes found two already. Can you beat me?

I found ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ differences!

YOUR TURN

Design Your Costume

What will you wear this Halloween? Or what would you wear if you could be ANYTHING? Draw it on the trick-or-treater, then give it a name.

Mash two ideas together: a dinosaur-astronaut? A bat-superhero? (Beep boop, the sillier the better!)
